

What are businesses saying about the Partnership?

“Many of America’s small cities, towns and rural areas are competing very successfully in the hunt for new manufacturing and distribution centers. Greeneville ranks eighth in America’s Top 50 Small Towns for Corporate Facilities.” —Site Selection Magazine

“The positive impact of the Greene County Partnership has clearly been a major influence, especially in the area of industrial growth – which in turn exerts an indirect but major influence on local spending for retail items, services, homes and so forth. As some company leaders have themselves commented publicly during the year, the progress that has been made in local industrial employment is in significant part a tribute to the interest and assistance offered by the GCP...” —The Greeneville Sun

The February 2011 announcement of the Partnership’s location of US Nitrogen LLC is “one of the largest and most promising economic development announcements in Greene County in recent history.” — Tennessee Governor Bill Haslam

“Greeneville/Greene County is truly one of the best small markets in the American South for Industrial recruitment” — Michael C. Randle, Publisher of Southern Business & Development

What is the Greene County Partnership?

The Greene County Partnership was formed in 1993 when the former Boards of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce, Economic Development, Tourism and Keep Greene Beautiful decided to consolidate into one entity. This consolidation resulted in the formation of one broadly based Board of Directors to develop and oversee financing, staffing, housing, planning, policy and program. In 1995, a new entity, Education & Workforce Development, was created and is now a part of the organizational structure.

What are some of the accomplishments since the Partnerships formation?

- Located more than 20 new manufacturing/distribution companies to Greene County.
- Assisted numerous existing industries with expansions that added or retained millions of dollars for the Greene County economy.

- Through Partners in Education/ Education & Workforce Development, more than 200 Master Partnerships formed between business and education bridging the communication gap and enabling area students to better prepare for the future.
- More than $4 million was pumped into the local economy as a result of Partnership events and Tourism’s marketing programs.
- Over 5,000 students participate in Keep Greene Beautiful activities annually.
- Hosting the annual Iris Festival which draws thousands of visitors to Greene County each year.
- Developed and Implemented the Tourism Advisory Task Force whose members represent lodging, local attractions, retail, dining and recreational sites.

- Leadership Greene County Program is in its 17th year.
- Greene County Youth Leadership is in its 13th year.
